NAME_____ G00_____ENTRY TERM_____

American Studies Minor

Caroline Woidat, Coordinator (Welles 228A)

Like the American Studies major, this minor offers students the opportunity to pursue an interesting and diversified liberal arts program which can serve as the basis for lifelong education. The minor may prove of particular value for students pursuing careers in teaching, museum work, photography, journalism, or television production.

Total Required Hours: 22

		# Hours Completed
AMST 201	Topics in American Studies: (subtitle)
ENGL ___	One course in American literature
HIST ___	One course in American history before 1877 (HIST 150, 161, 163, 263, 352, 353, 355, 361, 362, 365)
HIST ___	One course in American history after 1877 (HIST 151, 162, 164, 204, 250, 266, 357, 366, 367, 368, 369)
One course exploring cultural intersections in America; that is, a course focusing on marginalized peoples and/or critical approaches to difference, including class, ethnicity, gender, race, religion, sexual orientation, and/or ability. (from list of approved courses)
One course examining American cultures from a transnational, cross-border, comparative approach (from a list of approved courses)
Elective hours in courses emphasizing American Studies selected under advisement (e.g., in American Studies, anthropology, art history, communication, english, geography, history, interdepartmental, management, music, philosophy, political science, sociology, and theater arts). At least 6 hours must be at the 300 level. (from a list of approved courses)
Guidelines for course selection: 1. Students may take "AMST 201: (subtitle)" for credit toward the minor twice, as long as the subtitle is different in each case. 2. Minors must earn a minimum of 6 semester hours in courses at the 300-level. 3. A maximum of 9 semester hours may be taken at the 100-level of the 22 credits required for the minor
	Total Hours Completed:

Revised 06/2014

UNOFFICIAL