Application Procedures

1. Complete this Visiting International Student Application Form and submit it to the Assistant Provost for International Affairs at the address at the beginning of this form.

2. Submit with this application form the non-refundable Visiting International Application fee of $40 USD made payable by check or money order to SUNY Geneseo CAS Study Abroad. This fee is waived for students from the following universities: Sogang University, University of Groningen, University of Canterbury, University of the West Indies, Hacettepe University, Universidad de Cadiz, Universidad Nacional (Costa Rica), Centro de Investigación y Docencia Económicas, Universidad de las Américas Puebla, Université Paul Valéry – Montpellier III, and Universidad Nacional de Cordoba (Argentina).

3. Submit original or certified copies of your academic transcript from all universities you have attended, including the one you are currently enrolled in; if in a language other than English, certified translations of those records are required. You must currently be a degree-seeking student at an accredited university to be accepted as a visiting international student at Geneseo.

4. English Language Proficiency:
   - Students whose native language is not English must submit evidence of English Language Proficiency. Results of the Test of English as a Foreign Language (called the TOEFL) or equivalent exam (for example, IELTS or the European Common Frame of Reference for Languages) or documentation of successful completion of an Intensive English Program are required.

5. Evidence of Financial Support:
   - Students planning to study in the United States on a J-1 visa must submit financial evidence documenting sufficient funds for their student careers. Submission of the SUNY Geneseo FinancialSponsorship Form (available online and at SUNY Geneseo's Study Abroad Office) and the materials outlined on that form is required. This documentation may be submitted after the decision on admission to Geneseo has been made.
