PATH (Promoting Awareness Through Harmony) Awards
Nomination Form 2012

The PATH Awards were created to support Geneseo's commitment to:
"Recruiting, supporting, and fostering the development of a diverse community of outstanding students, faculty and staff; respecting the unique contributions of each individual to the campus community; and developing socially responsible citizens with skills and values important to the pursuit of an enriched life and success in the world."

PATH Awards are sponsored by the Office of the President and administered by the President's Commission on Diversity and Community. They may be awarded to faculty, staff, student organizations, and/or individual students.

A list of previous winners may be found at http://diversity.geneseo.edu

The award criteria are:
• A record of sustained and current contribution to diversity and multiculturalism at Geneseo;
• Commitment to fulfilling the College's mission statement as it pertains to pluralism;
• Assistance in the creation of an environment that nurtures intellectual and personal growth in non-traditional arenas.

This nomination form should be submitted by April 13, along with a nomination statement addressing one or more of the award criteria given above. (Self-nominations are not recommended.)
