PLEASE REMEMBER:

Your AOP Advisor should be the first person you consult about anything that affects your ability to achieve your educational goals. We fully understand the rules, regulations and policies that you are expected to follow as a member of the college community. We can help you avoid and/or cope with most of the situations that may arise, whether academic, financial, social or personal. Your relationship with your AOP Advisor is highly related to your success at SUNY Geneseo. The better we get to know you, the more we can help, so make and keep your appointments with us! Our best wishes for a very successful semester!
