Regarding Relocation of Rochester's Interstate Bus Terminal – 11/3/09

Rochester's Interstate Bus Terminal, located for many years at Midtown, will be relocating to 186 Cumberland Street on Wednesday, November 4, 2009. This location is near the Amtrak Train Station and will have the following effects on the New York Trailways schedule through Geneseo and to and from this new location.

- The morning Trailways will leave Rochester's Cumberland Street Terminal at 8:20 AM (Midtown had been 8:30 AM). This Trailways will arrive on Geneseo's Main Street at 9:05 AM (previously 9:15 AM). There are no new printed schedules at this time.
- The evening Trailways will continue to leave Geneseo's Main Street at 6 PM but arrival at Cumberland Street Terminal will be 6:55 PM, instead of 6:45 PM previously scheduled for Midtown.
- For the balance of this semester the Geneseo – Rochester weekend service will continue to stop as scheduled at Broad Street Station (across from the Midtown Terminal) and it will continue on to the Cumberland Street Terminal, then continue its route. This will result in a 3-5 minute delay in subsequent stops.

Wishing you safe travels,
