

Career Services

OUR MISSION IS YOUR FUTURE

Published by the Career Services Office – Division of Student and Campus Life
SUNY Geneseo Blake A 104 1 College Circle Geneseo, NY 14454
Phone: 585.245.5721 Fax: 585.245.5800 Web site: <http://careers.geneseo.edu>

On-line Job Search Resources

The internet can be a terrific source of job postings if you know where to start. Here are some ideas:

Career Services: Visit our web site <http://careers.geneseo.edu> and under For Students – Job Search, you'll find a section for Job Listings. This will link you to postings that we have received and listed in KnightJobs and NACELink Jobs.

Idealist.org – Action Without Borders: “The best Nonprofit Career Center on the web, with hundreds of job and internship listings.” Go to <http://www.idealist.org> to search for opportunities in the non-profit sector.

Federal Government Employment: USAJOBS is provided at no cost and offers information on thousands of U.S. government job opportunities worldwide. Visit <http://www.usajobs.opm.gov>.

New York State Job Exchange: “You'll be able to search for jobs and related labor information about your career. By signing up you can create a resume, apply for jobs and have job listings sent to your email.” Go to <http://www.americasjobexchange.com/ny>.

Career Builder: “As the U.S.'s largest online job site, CareerBuilder.com puts over 1 million jobs in front of poised job seekers wherever they are - at home or at work - in print and on the Internet.” Go to <http://www.careerbuilder.com/>.

College Recruiter: “Jobs for college students, grads and recent graduates. Entry level work and career opportunities. Part-time and full-time. A great resource for job-seekers.” Go to <http://www.collegerecruiter.com/>.

JobBank USA: “This site specializes in providing employment and resume information services to job candidates, employers, and recruitment firms. Free resume posting. Cited as one of the largest employment Web sites on the Net, according to USA Today.” Go to <http://www.jobbankusa.com/>.

Yahoo: “As a leader in the online recruiting industry, Yahoo! HotJobs (<http://www.hotjobs.com>) has revolutionized the way people manage their careers and the way companies hire talent. Yahoo! HotJobs' tools and advice put job seekers in control of their careers.”

Indeed.com: Indeed is a search engine for jobs - with a radically different approach to job search. In one simple search, Indeed gives job seekers free access to millions of employment opportunities from thousands of websites. You can find them at <http://www.indeed.com/>.

Relocation Resources

Many of the sites on the previous page have job postings out of state and some offer international postings, but if you're looking to relocate, here are some sites specific to areas of interest to our students:

New York City:

<http://www.nyjobsources.com/>
<http://www.newyorkrecruiter.com/>
<http://jobmarket.nytimes.com/pages/jobs/>
<http://www.tristatejobs.com/>

Washington DC:

<http://www.dcjobs.com/>
<http://www.dcjobsources.com/>
<http://www.washingtonrecruiter.com/>
<http://www.careerjournal.com/>

Boston:

<http://www.bostonjobsources.com/>
<http://boston.com/jobs>
<http://www.searchboston.com/>
<http://www.jobfind.com/>

International:

<http://www.embassy.org>
<http://www.internationaljobs.org>
<http://www.interexchange.org>
<http://internationalcenter.umich.edu/swt/work/resources/workabroadmain.html>

In addition to specific job posting sites, you may want to view the following site for help in comparing some of the best places to live in our country:

<http://www.bestplaces.net>: Compares cities on such factors as sales and income tax rates, environmental quality, health costs, job growth, and school spending. It also offers climate profiles for 320 American cities and 1700 cities worldwide as well as crime statistics for 2500 cities in the US.