Interfolio Dossier & Credentials Services

Streamline the application process

Easily manage your application materials: gather letters of recommendation, transcripts, writing samples, curriculum vitae and other credentials to be delivered—simply and safely to almost anywhere in the world—and easily track the progress of your requests.

Have your credentials delivered: with Interfolio's reliable delivery you are able to meet unique institution and application process requirements and deadlines with email, USPS, FedEx or other delivery methods.

Fast Delivery: all delivery requests are processed within 1 business day; priority requests made before 2 pm EST will be sent the same business day. Online applications are processed within 1-3 business days. Guaranteed.

Make life easier for you and your letter writers

Your recommendation writers will thank you—and you'll be thanking yourself—for using our centralized and easy-to-use online service:

- Letter writers can write, manage and submit multiple letters of recommendation to Interfolio's safe and secure online platform, or mail letters directly to Interfolio.
- Interfolio eliminates the need for letter writers to manage multiple application systems.
- Letter writers can easily update and tailor letters to your specific opportunities.

Control is entirely in your hands

Not every institution has the same application process, but Interfolio can help you no matter what. We deliver your documents to any school, electronically or by mail, with Express and Rush delivery options available.

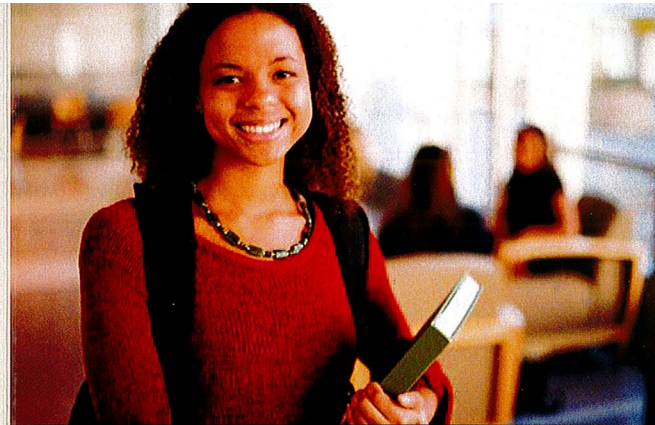

- Interfolio services are available anytime, anywhere, through any standard web browser.
- Add, delete and deliver documents to any potential grad school or employer.
- Track the status of letters and packages simply by logging into your account.

An Interfolio account is...

Confidential

All your credentials and materials are entirely under your personal control as to how it can be accessed, viewed, copied or printed.

Professional

Your work is packaged, delivered and presented with the highest possible quality—to best represent you to future schools or employers.

Fast and reliable

We'll handle your credentials securely and confidentially, with the assurance of complete privacy. Track each document you are working on in one simple dashboard, and send materials securely to any institution.

Supportive

Interfolio provides the most responsive, go-the-distance customer service you'll ever find. We're right there with you—each request for delivery is triple-checked by uniquely trained people serving as your personal advocates. Questions are handled promptly, courteously and thoroughly.

Affordable

You'll find a variety of plans to match your needs.
