SCHOOL OF BUSINESS STRATEGIC CHARTER

Vision

As a school of business within a highly recognized public liberal arts college with strong professional programs, we strive to prepare students for both the immediate challenges of employment or graduate study and the lifelong pursuit of professional success.

Mission

The School of Business is committed to excellence in business education within the context of a strong liberal arts tradition. Our carefully designed programs reflect our sustained commitment to teaching and continuous improvement. We endeavor to prepare graduates to assume responsible leadership positions in professional employment, to enter and succeed in graduate schools, and to develop lifelong habits of learning. In support of our teaching mission, we emphasize applied and instructional development scholarship. We also employ our professional skills in service to the school, college, scholarly and professional organizations, and other stakeholders.

Our Educational Philosophy

The Geneseo student body is expected to remain highly qualified academically and to consist predominantly of traditional college-aged students from New York State. To prepare our students to meet the challenges of business, we must provide them with high quality degree programs that offer an integrated combination of knowledge, skills and professional orientation. We seek to do this by creating a student-centered active learning community in our classes and co-curricular activities.

Our program is designed to ensure that our students leave Geneseo with:

- A thorough grounding in the principles, tools and best practices of a business discipline.
- An appreciation of the many issues that affect the business world, including diversity, globalization and technology.
- Competence in the analytical, interpersonal and communication skills necessary to succeed in the business world of today and tomorrow.
- An exposure to and interaction with the world of business.

We work to make explicit the connection between the liberal arts and business disciplines. We believe that the liberal arts core of the Geneseo education combined with our curriculum provides the broad foundation that will lead our students to develop sound business judgment and effective problem solving skills.

SCHOOL OF BUSINESS ACADEMIC PROGRAMS

The School of Business has three distinctive undergraduate degree programs, or majors, to accommodate the varied interests of our undergraduate students. Officially designated a School of Business in 1980, the school offers programs in Accounting, Business Administration, and Economics. In 2002 the School of Business received initial accreditation from AACSB International, the premier business school accrediting organization. The School currently enrolls approximately 225 Accounting majors, 450 Business Administration majors, and 75 Economics majors.

MAJORS

ACCOUNTING - Bachelor of Science (B.S.)

The accounting major is a professional degree program. The program provides a thorough understanding of modern accounting principles and procedures within the broader context of a quality undergraduate liberal arts education.

BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION - Bachelor of Science (B.S.)

The Business Administration major provides students with a thorough introduction to the major functional areas of business, which include a basic knowledge of the principles, tools and best practices of business management. As a business administration major you will develop your critical thinking skills through a broad liberal arts core and become actively involved in decision-making areas of business through group presentation and research projects.

ECONOMICS - Bachelor of Arts (B.A.)

The Economics major is a general education degree program that combines the breadth, analytical development, and flexibility of a liberal arts degree with a focus on the real world of economic activity. The program provides a theoretical and quantitative foundation, as well as an historical perspective in economics.

The degree requirements for all majors are listed on the Guidesheets on page 16-21 and are available in the School of Business office.

MINORS

The School of Business offers two minors; Business Studies and Economics.

BUSINESS STUDIES

The Business Studies minor is designed to provide liberal arts majors with an exposure to the general concepts of the business arena. Students wishing to declare the Business Studies minor must have a cumulative GPA of 3.0. Students who wish to declare a Business Studies minor must do so prior to the completion of 85 credit hours. Additional information is available in South Hall 100. Note: The Business Studies minor is not available to Accounting or Business Administration majors.

ECONOMICS

The Economics minor is a sequence of courses that provide the student with an introduction to the field of economics. Students wishing to declare the Economics minor must have a cumulative GPA of 3.0. Students who wish to declare an Economics minor must do so prior to completion of 85 credit hours. Additional information is available in South Hall 100.

FIVE YEAR COOPERATIVE 4+1 M.B.A.

This program is available to School of Business majors who complete a prescribed set of courses at Geneseo in four years. Following graduation from Geneseo, the qualified student may complete the M.B.A. in one additional year at SUNY Binghamton, Rochester Institute of Technology, Clarkson University, Union College, or Alfred University. This program requires a precise curriculum beginning in the sophomore year. Interested students should change their academic advisor to Dr. Avan Jassawalla.

Guidesheets for the 4+1 Programs are shown on pp. 22-26. Additional copies are available in South Hall 100.

ADMISSION TO THE SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

PRE-MAJOR POLICY

Students entering the College as Freshmen seeking to major in Accounting, Business Administration, or Economics are in a pre-major status. To be admitted into the Accounting, Business Administration, or Economics programs, Pre-majors must:

1. Complete a minimum of two full-time academic semesters at the college and earn a minimum of 24 credit hours in course work at Geneseo.
2. Earn a 2.85 cumulative GPA.
3. Submit by, May 1, or December 1, an Application Form found on p. 27, or available in South Hall 100, indicating their intention to major in Accounting, Business Administration, or Economics.

Students may apply for admission to the School of Business when they meet the above criteria, and will be notified of their acceptance by the Dean of the School of Business following the end of the semester. Pre-majors who fail to meet admissions criteria by the time they have completed 60 semester credit hours will not be allowed to enroll (or remain) in restricted and upper-level School of Business courses, and will be required to consult with the Dean of the College about changing their major.

Incoming Freshmen interested in being admitted to the B.S. in Accounting or Business Administration, or the B.A. in Economics degree programs are encouraged to take the appropriate introductory courses in the academic major to which they are seeking admission during their first two semesters.

CHANGE OF MAJOR POLICY

Students who entered Geneseo intending to major in other areas (or as undeclared), who decide to pursue a School of Business major, must apply to the School of Business.

Students with Freshmen or Sophomore standing may request a change of major to Pre-major status by completing a Change/Declaration of Major form. The completed form and the student's advisement folder should be submitted to the School of Business in South Hall 100. Change of major requests are not processed during the pre-registration and drop/add periods. Pre-majors must follow the application procedure described above and meet the GPA and credit hours earned requirements.

Students with Junior or Senior standing must apply to the School of Business by the December 1st or May 1st deadline. Applications are reviewed after each semester and upper class applicants must meet the minimum GPA requirements as above.

TRANSFER STUDENT POLICY

Students entering the College as transfer students who have successfully completed coursework at another college and seeking to major in Accounting, Business Administration, or Economics will complete a separate School of Business application, due April 1 or November 1. Admission to the School of Business will generally be based on the following criteria:

1. Students who have successfully completed, at the time of application, a minimum of 30 credit hours at another institution with a minimum GPA of 3.0 will be admitted as a School of Business major,
2. Students who have successfully completed, at the time of application, less than 30 semester hours at another institution with a minimum GPA of 3.0 will be admitted as a School of Business Pre-major. Transfer Pre-majors who enter Geneseo with a minimum of 30 transfer credit hours may apply for admission to the School of Business upon completion of at least 12 credit hours at Geneseo. A minimum cumulative GPA at Geneseo of 2.85 is required.

STATEMENT OF PROFESSIONAL BEHAVIOR EXPECTATIONS

You need to know at the outset of your major studies that the faculty of the School of Business will require of you a high degree of professional behavior during your career at Geneseo.

These are specific guidelines for professional behavior that students should follow.

Academic Responsibilities

- Plan your academic program to fulfill all degree requirements, with assistance from your faculty advisor as needed.
- Enrich your academic program by actively seeking assistance from appropriate College resources regarding opportunities for internships, minors, study abroad, work experience, etc.
- Develop your inter-personal skills and prepare for your career in business by participating actively in clubs, organizations, and activities
- Advance your career prospects by actively seeking information about employment, graduate school, and job search strategies available from Career Services.
- Get to know one or more of the faculty well enough that they can provide a meaningful reference for you.

General Student Behavior

- Be respectful of faculty and other students - exhibit “good citizen behavior” regularly.
- Visit faculty during their office hours – these are posted outside their office and on the School of Business webpage. If you can’t make their office hours, you shouldn’t assume that they will be available when it is convenient for you.
- Don’t interrupt conversations already in progress, even if you just have a “quick question” for someone.
- Wait until you are welcomed into a faculty office - don’t just walk in assuming they can see you right then.
- If you schedule an appointment with a faculty member, be there and on time. If something arises so that you will be late or miss the appointment, call the faculty member and let them know.
- It is always appropriate to address faculty members as Professor _____. It may be considered rude to call faculty by their surname alone or by their first name only. Do so only with explicit permission.
- Some people may be offended by dress that is too casual for the classroom. Respect individual instructor’s positions on this issue and dress accordingly.
- The School of Business wants students to learn how to work in teams effectively. Accept the challenges that working with team members may present. Be a contributing member.

Email Behavior

- Check your email daily - important information from instructors and the School of Business may be conveyed only via email.
- Email should not be used to ask questions to which you can find the answer by reading the syllabus, the student guidebook, the undergraduate bulletin etc.
- Email is an asynchronous communication method (the participants are not communicating at the same time) and should not be used for discussions that are better held using a synchronous communication method.
- Email should have the appropriate tone for your audience - don’t use slang or profanity when emailing a faculty member - you are not “IMing” your friends.

Classroom Behavior

- Attend all classes, be on time and prepared to participate.
- Be attentive for the entire class period - don't fall asleep, study for another class, or "pack up" 5 minutes before the end of the class.
- Make an active contribution to each class.
- Complete all exams, papers, and projects on time
- Utilize the instructor as a resource for learning.
- Do not have side conversations with classmates.
- Do not leave the room during class - bring whatever you need with you.
- Turn off your cell phone before class starts.
- If you are using a computer in a class, restrict your use to the class work. Do not email, IM, surf the web, play games, etc.
- If you miss a class, take responsibility for it - don't ask the instructor "did you do anything?" Don't expect the instructor to "repeat" the lecture for you in her office.
- The course syllabus contains important information - keep it handy and refer to it before asking the instructor for information that is provided in the syllabus.
- Understand that each instructor may have different classroom policies. If the instructor has a stated policy (for example on make-up exams, or late assignments) respect that policy and don't expect an exception.
- Anticipate and make allowances for computer problems. A printer "dying" the morning that an assignment is due may not be deemed to be an acceptable excuse for the assignment being late.
- If you are uncertain about the material being covered in a class – ask questions! There is a good chance other students have the same question and many of you will benefit from hearing the answer.
- Take personal responsibility for your academic progress. Don't wait until just before an exam to start studying or ask the instructor for extra help.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT REQUIREMENT

School of Business Students are required to participate in and complete a minimum of twelve (12) professional development events as a graduation requirement. They must attend at least one each year. Transfer students entering with Junior status will be required to complete a minimum of eight (8) events.

Students (starting with Fall 2005) will be required to attend the following four events, one designed for each year level as indicated below, as part of the PD requirement.

Freshman Year – Geneseo Resources

Sophomore Year – Getting Involved

Junior Year - Career Planning

Senior Year - Ready Or Not

Students who enter the School of Business after their freshmen year are still required to attend the four mandatory events in order to fulfill the graduation requirement. This means that some sophomores and juniors will attend the first two events at a later time in their academic program at Geneseo.

Events will be selected from a variety of sanctioned professional and/or career development activities. Students will be apprised of the available events through the School of Business's calendar (<http://business.geneseo.edu>; then click on PD Events tab). Faculty may also announce events in class. Student attendance at each of the sanctioned events will be verified and recorded by Geneseo ID #. Students will be able to confirm that they have been credited with completion of the activity by accessing a central database. Students will be responsible for notifying the School of Business of any discrepancies within a reasonable period of time.

The Professional Development topics include:

- Goal-setting
- Career options
- Internship program benefits and opportunities
- Job research skills
- Professional dress and etiquette
- Networking
- Resume writing
- Interviewing techniques
- Interpersonal skills in the workplace
- Transitioning to the workplace
- Employment laws
- Employee benefits
- Time & stress management in the workplace
- Business Ethics
- Leadership in Business
- Conflict Resolution
- Diversity in the Workplace

Some of the sanctioned events include (but are not limited to):

School of Business Activities:

- Geneseo Resources – freshmen mandatory event
- Getting Involved – sophomore mandatory event
- Career Planning – junior mandatory event
- Ready Or Not – senior mandatory event
- Internship Information Session - offered each semester
- School of Business Career Lecture – offered each spring

Career Services Sponsored Workshops.

Job Search Jump Start

An initial meeting with a Career Services advisor

GOLD Program Workshops:

Each semester the School of Business approves several GOLD Program Workshops as Professional Development Events. Please check the GOLD Program for a complete listing of approved programs for the semester (<http://gold.geneseo.edu>).

PD Event Attendance Protocol

- Select events that are of interest to you - be a participant not just present in the room
- Arrive before the scheduled start time – late arrivals may be prohibited from attending
- Stay for the entire event – it is unprofessional to leave before the event has concluded
- Focus on the presenter – do not bring other work or reading to the event
- Make sure you bring a pencil and your Geneseo ID# - attendance is taken at the end
- You must complete the scantron sheet at the time of attendance to get credit – no retroactive credit will be granted under any circumstances

PD Database Information

To view your Professional Development event attendance, log-in to myGeneseo and check your myAcademics page (see below if you can't find the portlet). Remember – it still takes some time to process the scantron sheets, so it may be a few weeks after the event before it shows on myGeneseo.

If for some reason you can't find the PD portlet (possibly because you previously deleted it), you can add it back to any page by simply:

- “Add Content” (under the main menu, right side)
 - Select the “School of Business” category
 - Select “PD Events”
 - Click the “Add to my page” button
- Missing Events: If you think an event is missing, provide the name and date of the event you attended that is missing to the School of Business secretary. Please do not email and ask about missing events - you need to bring the information to South Hall 100 in person. If you do not have the name and/or date, we probably can't track it down. Remember that only events with a scantron sheet at the end were sanctioned. If you completed the form in pen, or did not include a correct ID number or CRN for the event, you probably did not get credit for the event.
 - Fulfilling the Requirement: When you register for your last semester at Geneseo, you will register for one of the following PD requirement sections:
 - Business Administration majors - Mgmt 099
 - Accounting majors - Acct 099
 - Economics majors - Econ 099

If you have registered for this zero credit "class," your PD record will be reviewed at the end of the semester and you will receive a "Satisfactory" or "Unsatisfactory" grade. This will become a permanent notation on your transcript and show that you have fulfilled the requirement. Remember, this process will only take place in the Fall and Spring semesters. If you are an August graduate - sign up for the 099 class during the spring semester.

IMPORTANT ACADEMIC POLICIES OF THE SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

The School of Business regards all acts of cheating and/or plagiarism on tests or other assignments as unprofessional behavior in violation of College policies (see the Undergraduate Bulletin online). Students are expected to be aware of and to obey the College policies concerning academic dishonesty. Any alleged cheating and/or plagiarism may be dealt with by the School as a disciplinary problem in accord with College policies as stated in the Bulletin. The faculty of the School will take all necessary steps to deter academic dishonesty, all cases of which will be reported to the Dean of the School for possible disposition as a College disciplinary matter.

ADVISEMENT AND REGISTRATION PROCEDURES

School of Business majors and pre-majors should meet with their faculty advisor at a pre-scheduled time for academic advisement. Advisement is required for: 1) all freshmen (any student with less than 30 hours at Geneseo), 2) any student who at the start of the semester had a cumulative GPA of 2.3 or less or who is on academic probation, and 3) all transfer students with 30 hours or less from Geneseo. Advisement is encouraged for all students.

All students are assigned a faculty advisor and may consult with him/her before pre-registration. Check Knightweb to confirm your advisor. Freshmen pre-majors are assigned to the Freshman Advisement Team, currently Professors Strang and Chen. An upper class advisor will be assigned at the beginning of the sophomore year. While every attempt is made to maintain faculty advisor assignments for students, personnel changes may necessitate a new advisor assignment.

Students will receive pre-registration information via email. Students for whom advisement is required must schedule an advisement appointment. Please sign up for an appointment with your advisor – do not expect to just “walk-in” to your advisor’s office. The faculty advisor will approve courses by signing the form. After obtaining your advisor’s signature, you will need to take your registration sheet to the secretary in South Hall 100 to get your registration hold removed. You will not be able to register until the hold has been removed.

Students should come prepared to their advisement appointment with a desired schedule of courses and times, including alternatives for each first choice. Students are responsible for knowing their program and college degree requirements. Current guide sheets for all School of Business programs are available in South Hall 100.

All students should complete, as their specific major requires, Acct 102, Acct 103, Econ 101, Econ 102, Econ 202, Intd 205, Math 213, Mgmt 250 and Phil 237 - before registering for 300-level School of Business courses.

A minimum grade of C- is required in all courses submitted in fulfillment of any School of Business program, including required related courses. Courses with D grades must be repeated and cannot be used to meet pre-requisite requirements (see the online Undergraduate Bulletin). General Education requirements may be fulfilled with a D grade.

All students must complete a Pre-graduation check (referred to as a CAPP report) prior to registering for their senior year. The Assistant to the Dean normally completes these forms after the completion of 75 credit hours for each School of Business major. Students must review and sign the Pre-graduation check prior to advisement acknowledging their degree status. Students are notified by e-mail when to sign-up for an appointment to complete this process.

Exceptions to the above advisement and registration procedures will not be permitted. No special arrangements will be made for students who fail to follow the prescribed procedures and are, as a result, closed out of required classes or are unable to graduate at the desired time.

APPLICATION FOR PERMISSION TO TAKE MAJOR COURSES AT OTHER COLLEGES

Students who desire to take courses at other colleges must secure permission in advance. A permission form may be secured from the School of Business or downloaded through the Office of the Dean website. Please provide a course description or course outline when you submit this form. Transfer equivalency credit for School of Business courses will only be provided when the School of Business (South Hall 100) has signed the form.

CHANGE OF MAJOR WITHIN THE SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

Changes of major within the School of Business will be permitted only if the student has the required GPA for admission to the new major, and if space is available.

D GRADE POLICY

A minimum grade of C- is required in ALL courses submitted in fulfillment of any School of Business program, including required related courses (such as: MATH 213; PHIL 237; INTD 205). Courses with D grades must be repeated before they can be used to meet the prerequisite requirements.

ETHICS DIMENSION OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION "CORE" COURSES

The Business Administration degree has a built-in sequential ethical dimension. The foundation is established in PHIL 237, Ethical Issues in Business, and reinforced in various upper-level courses. The purpose of this focus is to cause students to become aware in a formal manner of the range of concerns that should be involved in responsible decision-making in contemporary society.

DEPARTMENT WRITING REQUIREMENT

All School of Business majors are required to enroll in INTD 205 Business Communications. School of Business majors must achieve a minimum grade of C- in INTD 205 and also pass the required Proficiency Examination, administered at the end of INTD 205. Satisfactory completion of the Proficiency Examination is a mandatory graduation requirement for all School of Business majors independent of passing INTD 205. Teams of faculty readers grade the Proficiency Examinations.

Students failing to pass the Proficiency Examination will receive their earned letter grade and credit for INTD 205. But successful completion of the Proficiency Examination will remain a degree requirement. Students will retake the examination at its next regularly scheduled offering, and may enroll in a tutorial program during the interim. The School of Business reserves the option, when it deems necessary, of requiring a student to do additional preparation for the examination. Additional training in preparation for the examination may include further guided work with the course instructor, enrollment in another writing course, an individualized tutorial program and a selected program of self-study.

Any questions concerning the School of Business Proficiency Examination may be sent to the Assistant Dean.

WRITING REQUIREMENTS IN UPPER LEVEL COURSES

All 300-level School of Business courses will normally contain at least one written exercise (excluding essay exams) determined by the instructor to be appropriate for the subject matter of the course. A minimum of 25% of the grade on the written exercise will be based on writing mechanics.

Submission of the same written exercise by School of Business students for more than one course, without the approval and prior knowledge of the pertinent instructors, is not permitted. Such dual submission is considered to be Academic Dishonesty as defined in the Undergraduate Bulletin, and is subject to the sanctions provided therein.

BULLETIN BOARDS and SCHOOL OF BUSINESS EVENTS CALENDAR

The School of Business maintains current information bulletin boards in South Hall and the School of Business Events Calendar and PD Event Listing found on the Geneseo website. Notices of activities, PD events, meetings, registration procedures, and other pertinent information are posted on these bulletin boards and found on the calendar. School of Business students are responsible to remain informed by reading the material posted on the bulletin boards and checking the calendar.

EMAIL

All business students should have a Geneseo e-mail account. The School maintains an email list (SOBmajors-L) of all business students and frequently sends important information to students via e-mail. Only the Geneseo email address will be used. If you send your emails to your phone, please add your Geneseo email address. The Gmail addresses will NOT be used.

INFORMATION ON GRADUATE EDUCATION

Dr. Avan Jassawalla maintains a large amount of material pertaining to graduate education. Students are encouraged to look at these materials outside South Hall 116.

SPECIAL ACADEMIC PROGRAMS OF THE SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

INTERNSHIP

The Internship Program allows qualified upper-division majors to obtain experience in the "real world." Students are placed with area business, government, or other professional sponsors. Internship students work with their sponsors for approximately 12-15 hours per week under the guidance of a faculty director. They are required to participate in a bi-weekly seminar, submit a research paper, and present a final report on their internship. Internship students are enrolled for 3 to 15 credit hours.

Application forms and additional information are available from Professor Robert Boyd in South Hall 112. The basic requirements to enter the Internship Program are: Junior or Senior class standing, a 2.85 cumulative GPA, a 3.0 GPA in prerequisite major courses (modest exceptions will be considered), and positive recommendations from two or more School of Business faculty.

STUDY ABROAD PROGRAM

The world is getting smaller. Companies get larger and more international. What happens in China or Germany can have great importance to us in the United States. Ideas, technologies, and policies are international these days. International cultural and educational exchanges and study abroad programs have long been recognized as beneficial to our national interest. Here's a few reasons why!

- It is different, exciting, fun!
- You will learn a great deal about yourself and your capabilities, maybe things you never expected!
- You will learn first-hand how others live, think, enjoy themselves, the values we all have in common and those that divide us
- You will be able to take courses that deepen your understanding while giving a different perspective on the world
- It will help build your resumé — employers realize how important international experience is in today's global marketplace
- With appropriate advice on course selection, you can transfer back all the credits taken abroad and complete your degree on schedule
- And, with careful planning, it need not cost much more than a regular semester/year at Geneseo

Through Geneseo, we also have access to all Study Abroad programs run by SUNY Geneseo as well as other SUNY campuses. Students therefore have the chance to study in virtually any area of the world they choose.

For those people excited by the idea of study abroad but not sure if they could handle a semester or academic year, or who just want to take courses somewhere else, Geneseo offers an increasing number of short courses in the Summer.

The world is a great place and we need to know a great deal more about it and the people in it if we are to navigate this new century successfully. The personal growth that results from study abroad is a truly wonderful thing and adds wonderfully to the overall university experience.

If you would like more information, contact the International Programs Department at (585) 245-5546 or visit our web site at <http://www.geneseo.edu/~doc/curriculum/studyabroad.shtml>
