Conflict Studies Minor

James Allen, Coordinator (Blake B 119)

Requirements: I. Basic Requirements: (6 hours) All students must complete PSYC 121 and COMN 346. II. Required Concentration (See Concentration descriptions below): (12 hours) Students should select one of the following tracks designed to familiarize them with a specific area of conflict management. Students should complete any four courses in that track except as noted:

- III. Other Requirements: (9 hours) In addition to four courses in the area of concentration, the student must complete one course from each of the other three concentration tracks in this minor.
- *Note: 12 credits of work must be unique to this minor. Required Concentration Tracks 12 hours no more than two (2) 100-level courses may be selected.
 - A. Global Perspectives on Conflict: This track is designed to give students a global or international and cross-cultural perspective on why conflict occurs, how conflict is resolved, and the consequences of conflict on a large scale.
 - B. Power Issues and Conflict: This track provides a psychological, political and legal exploration of conflict emerging from the use and abuse of power between and among people and various social systems. Inequality, oppression, and conflict stimulated by majority-dominated structures are examined.
 - C. Applied Conflict Management: This track is designed for students who wish to become more proficient in the practice of conflict management and resolution techniques in various social settings.
 - D. Social Conflict in the United States: This track focuses on tension in the United States created by struggles between various political and social groups endemic to American society.
