Why should you apply for the Who's Who Award?

The Who's Who Award Among Students in American Universities and Colleges is a program intended to recognize individual academic excellence on a nation level. This award is open to any student who fulfills the following requirements:

- College juniors, seniors, and graduate students with a minimum GPA of 2.7
- Criteria in selection include leadership in extra-curricular activities, scholarship ability, citizenship and service, and potential for future success

As a benefit of receiving this award, students are entitled to lifetime use of Reference service, maintained for the exclusive assistance of students seeking post graduate employment, or fellowships, and, its free! There are no charges or fees.

How are the Winners chosen?

A selection committee from Geneseo will be assembled to evaluate the applications. Letters will then be sent out informing the applicants of the committee's decision. Those students who have received this award in the past may NOT re-apply.

What do you need to do?

Please fill out the following application with necessary personal information. Answer the questions to the best of your ability and complete all parts. Please note that the answers to all questions MUST BE TYPED.

Please feel free to contact me for further questions, or clarifications. I encourage you to visit the website describing in more detail the award and their history at www.whoswhoamongstudents.com. Good Luck!
