Reading 20: SEAA T-shirts:

We want to make t-shirts to promote disability awareness week and also for the club. We would like to purchase these t-shirts, will feature a staircase with the handicap symbol. In the back will be the SEAA, ACE and SA logos. The t-shirts will cost $9 each from Special tees from Geneseo. $360 for 40 shirts: free of charge to members or those who help out during the week. We'll be distributing them on the general meeting on the 30th. The shirts will not be sold. This is will be a Statement shirt not just a club t-shirt.

Reading 21: Disability Awareness Week:

We are requesting $610 dollars to fund our events during April 4th. Dr. Ben Moshi will be the speaker who will be talking about disability around the world. Speaker fee is $400 and an additional $50 to cover travel costs. We will also screen the film: the "Black Balloon" a coming of age story of an Australian teen with his autistic brother. The cost to screen the film is $150 and will take place in Newton Lecture Hall. Who is the film contractor: I don't know. We also want $10 for promotional posters. Will work with Claire for the contracts.

Reading 22: The Hip-hop Symposium Speaker

Would be the 5th of April or the 6th. BSU will like to co-sponsor speaker Joan Morgan, the cost including hotel fees and meals which will be a little over $2000. She's a Black feminist, wrote a lot of articles on hip hop and feminism. She also wrote an article called "Does hip-hop hate women?", she is a controversial speaker and very well-known. She'll be talking to us about hip hop and her life and how it comes together. Cost: $ 2217.50
