Updates:

Slavic: This Friday we're having a Slavic dinner night at the Interfaith Center. Between 6-8pm we will be serving Russian and Slavic food. We will be selling tickets at the Union $3 for students, $4 for staff/prof, $5 for general public.

GCCC: There will be a dumpling festival this Saturday at 6pm at Saratoga Commons. If you want to learn to make them, come at 2pm.

SEAA: We haven't decided if we're having a dinner next semester or not. If we do, will be at the IFC rather the ballroom.

Shakti: Elections next Monday.

KASA: Our newly elected ace rep had to go home for this week and will come in next week. Our picnic is May 5th.

JCC: No new updates

WAC: Sexual assault awareness week, next week. Day of expression on Wednesday,

Pride: Day of Silence went very well. Dinner this Saturday, doors open at 5 pm. You should buy them in advance, and we are working with Hillel for the chocolate Seder event.

LSA: Our dinner was this week, elections will be next week.

BSU: Our fashion show is this Saturday with 2-3 being food portion and 3-5 being the show. Food will also be served. We will be having a mini bone marrow drive for Fiona. Would ACE collaborate?

Will: Introduce Stasia, new ACE Chairperson! Vice Chair elections at the end of the meeting. Ordered T-shirts and food for field day and have been doing budget advocacy.

II: Open discussion: CAS

Gus project: Fusion Market

Took a lot of the information on what we wanted to in the space from a whole host of different avenues, from students.

Glass doors market, farmers produce market area,

During the day there will be premade salads, at night do something different

Deli area (premade sandwiches and get them finished off)

Grill station (skewers: chicken, lamb skewers with pita, etc

Stir-fry station with rice bowls. Create an interactive fun experience with the customers.

Ideas: Pho, noodles, veggies, Fish tacos, Fish skewers, pan fried dumplings, pierogies, Jerk Chicken, plantains, rice and beans, Vegetarian curry

More veggie options for vegetarians and vegans

Claire: Workshop in gold room on transitional leadership and contract meeting
7pm Gold Room.

Reading #31: (Second two readings) Ace Constitution (again)

Ace Chair will be change of finances and assist in publicizing events.

Passes 10-0-0

Reading 32: Ace Mixer

SA exec has extra money from their retreat budget so we will be having a new e-board and old e-board mixer. There will be $300 for food for 40 people. We are changing the room so we're going to be having the mixer in room 319.

Passes 9-0-0

Pool Party: Not much attendance, the water was very warm very good. It was very fun and relaxing.

Field Day:

Food was ordered! Tshirts will come in the day before. Everything is ordered! Just have to advertise. It will be 4-7pm at the Village park on Tuesday May 3rd. We also want $5 for poster printing
