

Selected Subject Headings:

- | | |
|--------------------------------|--|
| Costume | Jewelry -- American |
| Costume Design | Lighting -- History |
| Clothing and Dress | Stage props |
| Dress Accessories | Theaters -- Decoration |
| Dressmaking | Theaters -- Stage-setting and scenery. |
| Furniture -- Canada -- History | |

Collection Browsing:

- | | |
|--|--|
| GT 500-2370 Costume. Dress. Fashion | NK 1700 – 2195 Interior decoration. |
| NA Architecture | NK 2200 – 3496.3 Furniture. Rugs and carpets. |
| NB Sculpture | Upholstery. Drapery. Wallpapers. |
| NK Decorative Arts | TS 1300-1865 Textile industries |

A Selection of Periodical Titles in Milne Library Lower Level

- TD & T. 1990 (Title change: preceded by Theatre design & technology 1965 – 1989)
Material culture. 1984 -
Theatre design & technology 1965 (Title change: continues as TD & T. 1990 -)
Design Quarterly 1954 –

Article Indexes and Databases

- America: History and Life
ArtSTOR
Historical Abstracts

Selected Internet Resources

Design and Stagecraft

The New York Public Library maintains extensive lists of resources for the Performing Arts. These selected internet resources for Design and Stagecraft are only some of what is available. Be sure to refer to their general lists as well as those which specialize in Arts Administration, Dance, and Theatre.

<http://www.nypl.org/research/lpa/internet/lpa.cfm?Trg=1&d1=1022&d3=Design%20%26%20Stagecraft>

United States

American Memory Collection

A project from the Library of Congress, American Memory offers multimedia collections of digitized documents, photos, recorded sound, motion pictures, and text from the American historical collections of the Library and other institutions. Now offers more than 7.5 million digital!

<http://memory.loc.gov/ammem/browse/>

Digital Library for the Decorative Arts and Material Culture: Image and Text Collections

Collects and creates electronic resources for study and research of the decorative arts, with a particular focus on Early America. Included are electronic texts and facsimiles, image databases, and Web resources. Produced at the University of Wisconsin Madison General Library System.

<http://digicoll.library.wisc.edu/DLDecArts/>

Dr. Jeffery Howe is Fine Arts Faculty at Boston College. From his homepage, you can have access to a few good collections including: the Digital Archive of American Architecture and the Digital Archive of European Architecture

(http://www.bc.edu/bc_org/avp/cas/fnart/archives.html). While somewhat neglected (last update 2004), his Architecture Web Sites is a collection of links that still has many good resources.

(http://www.bc.edu/bc_org/avp/cas/fnart/archweb_links.html)

Picture Collection Online

PCO is a select group of images from The New York Public Library, Mid-Manhattan Library, Picture Collection. Created in 1915, the Picture Collection covers over 12,000 subjects.

<http://digital.nypl.org/mmpco/index.cfm>

United Kingdom

British Library Images Online

Here you have access to thousands of images from the British Library's unparalleled collections.

<http://www.imagesonline.bl.uk/britishlibrary/>

Heritage Image Partnership

A new online picture library, distilled from the vast collections of our partners such as the British Library, Guildhall and the British Museum. Note: You must register (it's free) to view expanded images without watermarks and to "receive other user benefits".

<http://www.heritage-images.com/search/>

Understanding Styles

This page from the Victoria and Albert Museum has multiple guides to investigate the styles that characterize each period through highlighted motifs and explanatory text.

http://www.vam.ac.uk/collections/british_galls/styles/index.html