

The Research Foundation
of State University of New York
Position Standards

TITLE:	Senior Research Aide
TITLE CODE:	R268
PAY RANGE:	S02

Effective Date: October 1989

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES

Positions provide an advanced level of support to research projects or programs. Incumbents must be full time SUNY students with job duties that further the academic objectives of the incumbent.

LEVEL OF COMPLEXITY

Under general supervision, incumbents perform duties in support of public service, continuing education, instruction, or other programs or projects for which sponsor support has been awarded.

KNOWLEDGE/FORMAL TRAINING

One year of college training related to the work is required. Incumbents must be registered and actively engaged in a program of study leading to a degree at the campus location.

JOB RELATED EXPERIENCE/SPECIAL SKILLS

Incumbents provide a relatively high degree of mental activity, judgment or technical skill which is related to the instructional program.

GUIDANCE RECEIVED

Incumbents perform duties of this classification under general supervision.

TYPICAL PROMOTIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

None established for this position.

The knowledge and experience requirements described in this standard may be satisfied by an equivalent combination of knowledge and experience.

Position duties are meant to be illustrative of the work performed by an employee with this title. The actual job description may contain specific duties which are not outlined in this standard but which do not materially affect the classification.