B. Housing Contracts

4. Housing contracts are for the entire academic year (fall and spring semesters).
 - a) Contracts begun in August are effective until May.
 - b) Contracts begun in January are effective until May.

II. Eligibility

- A. SUNY Geneseo provides on-campus housing to every full-time, matriculated undergraduate who requests it, providing they meet their financial obligations to the College and remain in compliance with College and residential policies, guidelines, standards, and the instructions of staff members.

III. Occupancy Guidelines and Financial Obligations

A. Deposits and Reservation of Residence Hall Space

1. New Students

- a) In order for new students to reserve a residential space, a $150.00 housing deposit must be submitted to the Student Accounts Office by May 1.
 - i. This deposit is included in $300.00 initial deposit made with Admissions.
- b) The SUNY Geneseo Residential License Agreement must be completed online by July 1.
- c) Residence Hall and room preference are tied to the date of deposit and submission of the Residential License Agreement.
 - i. Deposits received before May 1 are considered “on time”.
 - ii. Double rooms are not always available. If necessary, students may be placed in an expanded occupancy room.
- d) All full-time students are guaranteed on-campus housing for all years of enrollment

2. Returning Students

- a) In order for returning students to reserve a residential space for the next academic year, a $150.00 housing deposit must be on file in the Student Accounts Office by the close of business on the fourth Friday in March.
- b) The SUNY Geneseo Residential License Agreement must be completed online by the close of business on the third Friday in April.
- c) Residents must participate in the housing selection process.
- d) All full-time students are guaranteed on-campus housing for all years of enrollment

A. Housing Assignments

1. Room assignments and changes are prerogatives of the College and are processed by written authorization from the Director of Student Life or designee.
2. The College reserves all rights with respect to the assignment and reassignment of room accommodations, and may, at its sole discretion, terminate such assignment. This includes the right to change the intended occupancy of an on-campus housing facility at any time to ensure the maximum utilization of the facility; to relocate residents within the on-campus housing system at its discretion for programmatic, financial, or disciplinary reasons; and/or reassign residents when the intended building or room occupancy is 50% or less.
 - a) In the instance of an on-campus housing reassignment, the resident(s) remaining in the residence agree(s) to accept and accommodate the new occupant(s). It is expected that a newly assigned student will be welcomed in a positive way
3. Residents may not change rooms without prior authorization from a Campus Living professional staff member.
4. Residents may be administratively removed from residence if they demonstrate an inability to abide by College policies necessary for effectively functioning in a group living environment.
5. Housing assignments for all first time students are delivered to the students Geneseo email during the last week in July.

B. Occupancy

1. Initial occupancy is required by the College's first day of classes each semester.
2. Rooms not claimed by this date may be reassigned unless written permission for late arrival has been given by the Director of Student Life or designee.
3. A resident who has not notified the College of late arrival may be reassigned to any available space.
4. Residents participating in academic programs that require them to be away from the campus during a portion of the academic year may apply for a mid-year release from their Residential License Agreement.
5. A resident who is released from housing and remains enrolled in the College will be charged a $150.00 administrative fee.
6. Residents have access to their assigned rooms during regular academic sessions from the designated move-in date in August to the designated move-out date in May.
7. Residence Hall Closing
 - a) Thanksgiving and Spring Breaks: All Residence Halls close at 10:00 a.m. on the morning following the last class day before vacation periods and open at 10:00 a.m. on the day preceding resumption of classes.
 - b) Winter Break: Residence Halls reopen on the day preceding the beginning of spring semester classes following Winter Break.
 - c) Saratoga Townhouses remain open throughout the duration of the academic year and do not close during college breaks.
8. At the end of each semester, residents are required to leave their residence hall space within twenty-four hours following the completion of their classes or examinations, or by hall closing, whichever comes first.
9. The Director of Student Life or designee will grant special permission to international students and student athletes needing accommodations during vacation breaks as approved by the Department of International Student and Scholar Services or the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics and Recreation respectively.
10. Residents leaving the college mid-year must remove all of their belongings at the end of the fall semester unless special permission is given by the Director of Student Life or designee.

C. Release from Housing

1. Residents may be released from their housing agreement after the fall semester only under the one or more following conditions:
 - a) not enrolled in spring courses (e.g., graduation, leave of absence, withdrawal);
 - b) study abroad;
 - c) off-campus internship;
 - d) a medical condition that cannot be accommodated in campus housing;
 - e) commuting from home;
 - f) or significant financial hardship.
2. All requests for release must include documentation.

- a) Documentation of financial hardships must demonstrate a significant change in financial circumstances since the original request for housing was submitted.

D. Room Changes and Vacancies

1. The College reserves the right to administratively assign residents to fill vacancies and make changes in room assignments.
2. Residents living in a residence hall room where a vacancy exists, may be given the opportunity to name a current resident to move in with them. Consideration is given to resident initiated requests for room changes through an established waitlist process.
 - a) Priority is given to residents housed in a temporary expanded occupancy room
3. All room changes must be approved by the Campus Living administrator
4. Room changes will not occur after Study Day during the fall semester.
5. The College reserves the right to move residents residing in rooms which are occupied by fewer than the designed capacity to another standard room.
 - a) Effort will be made to move residents to a space in the same residence hall.
 - b) Resident requests may not be accommodated.

E. Room Rates

https://www.geneseo.edu/student_accounts/room_rental

1. Housing Deposit Refunds
 - a) Current residents not bound by the residency requirement will be guaranteed a full housing deposit refund if the request is submitted by May 1.
 - b) Incoming students not bound by the residency requirement will be guaranteed a full refund if request is submitted within 30 days of deposit date or by August 1, whichever comes first.
 - c) Current residents: Prior to occupancy, residents who cancel their room reservations after July 15 and remain enrolled with the College will forfeit their housing deposit and be charged a $150.00 administrative fee.
 - d) New spring residents: Prior to occupancy, new spring residential students who cancel their room reservations after December 15 and remain enrolled in the College will be charged a $150.00 administrative fee.
 - i. Residents who are not released will be responsible for the full semester room charge.
 - ii. All appeals must be submitted to the Director of Student Life
2. Semesterly
 - a) Once a residential space is occupied, 50% of the semester rent is non-refundable.
 - b) Refunds are not issued after mid-semester date (per the SUNY Geneseo academic calendar).
 - c) Exceptions:
 - i. The deposit and unused portion of paid rental fees may be refunded to a resident who withdraws upon being called to active military duty, at the discretion of the Director of Student Life.

- ii. A resident who withdraws due to circumstances beyond their control. Room rental rates are not affected by brief lapses in provided services.

3. Adjustments

- a) Residents assigned to expanded occupancy (tripled) rooms, or other temporary rooms, should be aware that they will be expected to move when vacancies occur.
 - i. Room rental rates will be adjusted to the standard rate.
 - b) If a resident is offered the opportunity to move into a standard space from an expanded occupancy room in the same building, they may choose not to move, but will be charged for a standard space as per the billing dates listed in this license.
 - c) The date of notification of available space will be considered the date of occupancy change. The College cannot guarantee double occupancy, including cases where a roommate fails to take occupancy of the room.
 - d) Whenever rooms are occupied by fewer persons than the designed capacity, such occupancy being at the request of the occupants and NOT resulting from room assignment by the College over which the resident has no control, the occupants shall pay the applicable room rate listed on the schedule of rates.
4. Accommodations for Students with Disabilities or Medical-Related Conditions https://www.geneseo.edu/dean_office/disability_services
- a) All requests for accommodations must be made by the resident to the Office of Disability Services.
 - b) Student Life works with the Office of Disability Services to ensure that residents with documented physical or psychological disabilities are reasonably accommodated in accordance with federal law.

F. Campus Meal Plan

<https://www.geneseo.edu/cas/meal-plans>

- 1. All students living on campus are required by SUNY Geneseo to purchase a meal plan. An exception is made for residents of the Saratoga Townhouse community.
 - a) First-year students can choose between the Price Lock, Gold and Platinum meal plans.
 - b) Returning students can choose from the Silver, Gold and Platinum Plans.

G. Break Housing

- 1. The College offers break housing for all residents who are in need of housing during break periods. Residents who request approval to remain on campus for any period of time during one of the college breaks are required to complete an application requesting authorization to stay.
- 2. The right to reside on campus while classes are not in session is a privilege. Residents with a history of student conduct violations may not receive break housing accommodations.
- 3. Student Code of Conduct or Student Life policy violations committed during a break may lead to loss of the privilege to reside in campus housing for future breaks. Depending on the severity, residents who violate the Student Code of Conduct or a Student Life policy may lose the privilege to reside on campus during the break in which the incident occurs. All violations to the student code of conduct will be referred to the office of the Dean of Students.

4. Students should be aware that facilities may be working in the halls during break and do reserve the right to enter spaces for emergent situations.

H. Summer Housing

https://www.geneseo.edu/campus_living/summer-session-housing

1. The Residential License is also in effect for all summer sessions if a student is residing in the residence halls.
2. Residents who have paid for summer housing will be allowed to stay in their residence hall through commencement weekend. Residents will be asked to move to the assigned summer housing the day following commencement.
 - a) Check-in for each session begins at 12:00 p.m. on the Sunday before the start of the first class.
 - b) Check-out for each session is by 10:00 a.m. on the Saturday following the last class for that particular session.

I. Check-In

1. For verification, each resident must produce their SUNY Geneseo ID Card prior to being given access to their assigned room.
2. Room Condition Report (RCR)
 - a) Each resident of the College must complete and submit an assessment and verification of their assigned residential space within their first week of occupancy.
 - b) Incomplete RCRs or the failure to submit an RCR will result in the assumption of responsibility for any damage(s) evident to or loss of college issued property, furniture, or items to the resident of that assigned residence.
 - c) RCRs are the basis for assessment of any damage and/or loss attributable to the resident at the termination of occupancy.

J. Early Arrivals

1. Residents may not occupy or deliver items to their rooms, suites, or apartments prior to the official opening date unless an early arrival application request has been submitted and approved by the Department of Student Life.
2. Residents approved for early arrival may be charged a daily room fee from the date they arrive and check-in until the date the residence halls officially open for the semester.

K. Late Arrivals

1. Residents arriving beyond the scheduled hours for check-in should reach contact their respective Campus Living Professional to communicate their arrival time. This is to ensure that residents make a connection with the staff of their assigned residence hall, receive their room key, and pick up any applicable information.

L. Check-Out

1. Residents must vacate their residence hall within 24 hours following their last examination or by the date and time stipulated in the official academic calendar, whichever comes first. The College reserves the right to remove the belongings of residents or charge for occupancy beyond this time.

2. Residents who do not properly vacate their residence will incur daily housing charges until they depart.
3. Failure to return keys upon check-out will result in charges assessed for lock and/or key replacement.
4. Residents must remove and discard all refuse and personal items leaving the entire room, suite, or apartment in the same condition it was in upon their arrival at check-in. Failure to comply will result in charges.
5. Residents may identify and accept responsibility for any changes in the condition of their room based on the RCR prior to check-out.

M. Gender Inclusive Housing

1. Gender Inclusive Housing seeks to provide an environment that is welcoming to all gender identities and is not limited to the traditional gender binary (male and female). We recognize that same-sex room assignments are not ideal or appropriate for all residents. Residents who live in these areas will be permitted to have roommates and suitemates regardless of gender identity and/or expression. Student Life offers a limited number of gender inclusive housing options.

IV. Use, Care, and Responsibilities

A. Cleaning

1. Residents are responsible for removing trash and recyclable items regularly. Residents are also responsible for maintaining satisfactory health and life safety standards and cleaning their own rooms, suites and all common areas (i.e. kitchens, bathrooms, and living rooms) within residential spaces, including all furniture, fixtures, and appliances not routinely cleaned by custodial staff.
2. Syringes and other sharp objects must be placed in a rigid container for disposal. These items should never be placed in a plastic trash bag, which could result in the object penetrating the container, resulting in the possibility of a puncture wound to another individual. Personal use syringes (e.g., insulin, medication, etc.) should be placed in a sharps disposal container. Containers are available at the Lauderdale Health Center and in each residence hall.
3. Campus custodial staff may enter suites on a regular basis to clean bathrooms and during break periods to clean rooms, suites, or apartments as needed.

B. Damage

1. Each resident is responsible for indicating the condition of room and common area upon moving in and will be billed for damage to College property.
2. All residents assigned to a particular residence hall room or suite will be charged for damages when individual responsibility cannot be determined and any assigned resident within the room or suite could have been reasonably responsible for or expected to prevent the damage or report its cause.
3. Residents are responsible for reporting needed repairs immediately to a residence hall staff member. Self-repair is not permitted.

C. Reporting Repairs

1. For urgent repairs, residents must contact their Resident Assistant immediately.
2. Residents can report repairs by submitting a work order at go.geneseo.edu/workorder.
 - a) Residents must submit work order form to have college property within a suite, bedroom, or general area within a residence hall fixed or repaired.

- b) The following information must be included in each work order: name, SUNY Geneseo email address, and a phone number.
 - c) Work orders will be sent directly to the Campus Living Professional responsible for that particular building.
 - d) Work orders are reviewed and repairs are completed by Facilities Services staff.
3. Work order submission to completion of request is generally 24 to 48 hours. Repairs not completed within 5 business days must be reported to Campus Living professional staff.

D. Decorations

1. Residents may decorate their room, suite or apartment, with the understanding that any damages to the room, suite or apartment will be assessed to the resident or residents responsible.
2. Wall decorations cannot cover more than 20% of the available area.
3. Tapestries and curtains are not permissible

E. Furniture and Equipment

1. Each resident is provided with a bed, desk, chair, closet space, and dresser.
2. Furniture provided by the College may not be removed from rooms, suites, townhouses, or common areas.
3. Furniture or equipment may not to be disassembled.
 - a) Residents are permitted to raise and bunk beds only with the assistance of facilities staff.
4. Charges for moving common area or assigned furniture back to its proper location and for the loss or damage of such furniture are assessed against those responsible.

F. Guests

1. Guests are permitted only as authorized by College and residence hall policies and regulations.
2. A guest is considered to be any person present who is not assigned to that space. All guests are to be escorted by resident hosts at all times within the residence halls.
3. The right of a resident to reasonably live in privacy supersedes the right of a roommate to entertain guests. Roommates must receive each other's permission before inviting anyone to spend the night in the room.
4. Inappropriate behavior or visitation which infringes on the rights of other residents to have full use of any facility may lead to conduct action and/or removal from residence for the guest as well as the host.
5. A resident may host overnight visitors no more than three nights per month.

G. Noise

1. While residents are permitted to have a reasonable amount of sound equipment (e.g., speakers), consideration of others and the right to quiet supersede its use.
2. Use of musical instruments may be limited, and excessive noise may result in conduct action.

H. Courtesy Hours and Quiet Hours

1. Courtesy hours are in effect 24 hours a day 7 days a week.
2. Quiet hours are in effect:
 - a) Sunday - Thursday from 10:00 p.m. - 8:00 a.m.

- b) Friday - Saturday from 12:00 a.m. - 10:00 a.m.
- 3. 24-hour Quiet Hours begin during Final Exams at 11:59 p.m. on the last day of classes and remain in effect through the end of the last final examination.

I. Smoking

- 1. Smoking is prohibited in all on-campus residences at SUNY Geneseo.
- 2. While smoking, smokers must position themselves at least twenty-five feet away from any residence regardless of the weather.
- 3. "Smoking" includes any lit or vaporizing device that delivers any substance, including, but not limited to cigarettes, water pipes, and e-cigarettes or vapor cigarettes (which are not lit but deliver nicotine or any other substances through water vapor). E-cigarettes are prohibited because they can trigger smoke alarms and they affect some residents with allergies and respiratory sensitivities.

J. Pets

- 1. Possession of pets other than fish are not permitted in the residence halls.
 - a) Fish bowls and aquariums, less than 10 gallons in capacity are permitted for fish only.
 - b) Comfort/Emotional Support/Assistance Animals are not trained to perform specific tasks but provide comfort to a person with a psychiatric disability. Any animal can be a "comfort animal" as long as it does not pose a direct threat to the health and safety of others; will not cause substantial physical damage to the property of others; and will not fundamentally affect the operations of the residence hall. Students who need of an assistance animal must submit medical documentation to the Office of Disability Services. Comfort animals are approved as a "reasonable accommodation" in housing.
 - c) Any animal may be excluded from an area in which it was previously authorized to be if it is:
 - i. Out of control and effective action is not taken to control the animal.
 - ii. If the animal is not housebroken or if the owner does not dispose of waste properly.
 - iii. If the cleanliness of the residence hall room is not maintained.
 - iv. If the animal poses a direct threat to the health or safety of others that cannot be mitigated by reasonable modifications of policies, practices, or procedures, or the provision of auxiliary aids or services.
 - v. In considering whether a ESA poses a direct threat to the health or safety of others, Geneseo will make an individualized assessment, based on reasonable judgment, current medical knowledge, or the best available objective evidence, to determine: (1) the nature, duration, and severity of the risk; (2) the probability that the potential injury will actually occur; and (3) whether reasonable modifications of policies, practices, procedures, or the provision of auxiliary aids or services, will mitigate the risk. The College President shall name a designee who shall provide a written statement of explanation to any person with a disability if a determination is made that the presence of that person's Service or Emotional Support Animal would fundamentally alter the nature of a program, service, or activity.

- vi. In the event that restriction or removal of an animal is determined to be necessary, the person with a disability will still be given the opportunity to participate in the service, program, or activity without having the assistance animal present.
- vii. The above provisions on restrictions and exclusions is not intended to cover modifications to reasonable accommodations. The reasonable accommodation process and modifications to reasonable accommodations are covered under Geneseo's policy on Accessing Services.

- d) Students are encouraged to visit the Disability Services website at https://www.geneseo.edu/campus_living/service-dogs-and-comfortassistance-animals

K. Personal Property

- 1. The College is not responsible for damage or loss of personal property.
- 2. Residents are strongly encouraged to check family homeowner's or personal renter's insurance policies for coverage.

L. Bicycles

- 1. Indoor bicycle storage is available in many of the residence halls, and outdoor racks can be found outside all residence halls and around campus. These are free for use on a first come, first served basis.
- 2. Indoor storage locations are for use by residents only.
- 3. Bicycles left in indoor storage after residential closing in May will be removed by University Police Department officers and/or Facilities Services staff.
- 4. Outdoor bicycle racks are maintained by the Grounds Staff. When bicycles are left on outdoor racks for more than 2 semesters, they will also be removed.
- 5. Residents staying in the residence halls for the summer also have access to storage, but must register their bicycle with Assistant Director of Student Life for Educational Initiatives so that it will not be removed.

M. Laundry Facilities

- 1. There is at least one laundry facility in each residence hall and one for the Saratoga Townhouse Community.
- 2. Respectful and proper use of the Laundry Facilities is expected.
- 3. It is important to remove dryer lint after each load is dried to prevent the accumulation of lint buildup and prevent a fire from occurring.
- 4. Laundry detergent pod should be placed in the washer prior to clothing and should not be placed in dispensers or the machine could experience issues.

V. Safety and Security

- A. Students must adhere to the code of conduct for SUNY Geneseo
https://www.geneseo.edu/sites/default/files/sites/handbook/STUDENT_CODE_OF_CONDUCT_2015.pdf
<https://www.geneseo.edu/handbook>

B. Keys

- 1. Residents are responsible for all keys issued to them.
- 2. If a key is misplaced, a issued a new key and the cost of replacement will be charged to the student's account.

2. Incense and Candles
 - a) Candles, open flames, and incense of any type are not permitted in resident rooms, suites, or apartments, even if the candles are not being burned.
 - b) Permission must be obtained from a Campus Living professional to use candles for observing religious holidays. With this prior permission, residents will be able to light candles or incense in a location established by the Department of Student Life. In these instances, candles and incense may never be left unattended and any un-burnt remains must be extinguished and disposed of safely. These items cannot be brought back to a residential space - room, suite, townhouse, or apartment.
 - c) Resident behavior not in accordance with the Student Code of Conduct, resulting from possession of incense and/or candles, may lead to conduct action and/or removal from residence halls.

E. Alcohol and Drugs

1. Possession and consumption of alcoholic beverages by persons under the age of 21 is prohibited on the SUNY Geneseo campus.

2. Residents 21 years of age and over may possess and consume alcoholic beverages only in their own residence hall rooms or the rooms of other residents who are at least 21 years of age.
3. Resident behavior not in accordance with the Student Code of Conduct, resulting from alcohol use or abuse, may lead to conduct action and/or removal from residence halls.
4. Residents and guests must abide by the SUNY Geneseo Policy on Alcohol and Illicit Drugs.

F. Fire Safety

1. Prohibited Actions

- a) Tampering with fire or safety equipment. Doing so can carry a misdemeanor charge and a possibility of up to one year in jail.
- b) Cooking in any residence hall room.
 - i. Residents have access to at least one community kitchen in each residence hall.
 - a. It is important to use shared college properly with respect. Please refrain from placing metal in microwaves.
 - b. Never leave items unattended while cooking to prevent the fire alarm from going off.
- c) Affixing anything to the ceiling or on a wall within 18 inches of the ceiling.

1. In the case of an emergency, residents should call University Police Department at 585-245-5222.
2. Residents should inform the RA on duty or a member of the Campus Living professional staff of the situation for further assistance.

H. Inspections

1. Inspection of rooms for health and safety or maintenance will be made and may occur at any time with advance notice (except in an emergency situation or when a work order has been submitted).
 - a) Routine inspections do not include searches. However, college officials, including University Police Department Officers, may request to search residents' rooms when they have a specified probable cause. Unless a court-ordered search warrant is being executed, residents have the right to grant or refuse requests to enter or search their rooms or possessions.
 - b) Fire Inspections of residence halls will occur with the State Fire Marshall once or twice a semester, which cannot be refused.
2. Student Life staff members, University Police Officers, and Facilities staff members must carry SUNY Geneseo identification, present it upon request, and announce their purpose for entry.
3. SUNY Geneseo staff members will first knock on the door and allow a reasonable period of time for response by the residents before entering any room.
4. Residents are entitled to 24-hour notification of a need to enter their room for non-emergency circumstances. Residents may waive this advance notice to expedite repair or work orders.

5. A resident's obligation includes:
 - a) care and cleaning of assigned room/suite/townhouse
 - b) maintenance of health and safety standards
 - c) responsibility for and awareness of all activities and items in the room/suite/townhouse about which they could reasonably be expected to know
