

Computing & Information Technology

February 2023

CIT's Vision is to be an innovative information technology department that aspires to provide reliable creative solutions, to be a transformative influence and to empower our campus community.

CIT's Mission is to provide outstanding leadership and technology support in pursuit of the mission and goals of the college.