Phone: 585-905-1000

The School of Education Graduate Program at SUNY Geneseo offers a summer Reading and Writing tutoring program. Students in grades one through twelve, who are experiencing difficulty in learning to read and write, are invited to attend. During each session, students will participate in literacy lessons that are based on their interests and needs. Graduate students enrolled in the Literacy Specialist Program carry out the tutoring. There is no charge for this community service.

The Summer Reading Program will take place at Avon Central School.

Parents or other caregivers must provide transportation to and from the program.

The sessions start on Tuesday, July 2nd in the Avon Elementary School Library.

Students attend the program Monday –Thursday from 9:15 – 10:30 am OR 12:15 – 1:30 p.m.
