COLLEGE PROFILE

HISTORY OF GENESEO

SUNY Geneseo, one of thirteen university colleges within the State University of New York system, was established by an act of the New York State Legislature in 1867 as the Wadsworth Normal and Training School. In August 1871 the Legislature changed the name to the Geneseo Normal and Training School and officially opened September 13, 1871. Curricular offerings included elementary English, advanced English, and classical studies.

In the early 1900's, the curriculum was reorganized to require two years of professional study, and admission was restricted to high school graduates. In 1922, the programs were extended to three years, and in 1938, to four years. In 1942, the College was granted authority to confer baccalaureate degrees in all its curricula. Basic teacher training programs were expanded to include preparations for teacher-librarians, teachers of children with special needs, and speech pathologists. Teacher education continues to be a strong component of the College's programs.

Geneseo became an original campus of the new State University of New York (SUNY) system at SUNY's inception in 1948. During the next three decades the College developed strong liberal arts and sciences programs and added several professional curricula to its offerings. The first master's degrees were awarded in 1951. In 1962, the teachers colleges of the State University became Colleges of Arts and Sciences. Geneseo's four-year degree programs in arts and sciences were implemented in 1964. Since then, the School of Business was established and majors have been added in such areas as computer science, biochemistry, and international relations. The College now offers more than 50 degree programs in a wide variety of disciplines. Cooperative programs have been developed in several fields with other institutions, including 3-2 engineering, 3-4 dental, and 3-2 and 4-1 MBA programs. The College's commitment to providing a broad-based liberal arts education was confirmed in 1980 with the institution of a required core curriculum in natural sciences and mathematics, social sciences, humanities, and fine arts. Further revision in 1999 added critical writing, a quantitative requirement and foreign language. The College continues to improve and upgrade its curriculum through regular review and assessment. The strength of the liberal arts program was recognized in 2003 with approval for the installation of a Phi Beta Kappa chapter on campus. The chapter inducted its first class in spring, 2004.

Since 1994, SUNY Geneseo has been a member of the Council of Public Liberal Arts Colleges (COPLAC), an alliance of high quality, public liberal arts institutions. Found in 1987, COPLAC serves to promote excellent undergraduate education in the liberal arts tradition; the development of effective teaching and learning communities; and the expansion of access to public undergraduate liberal arts education of the highest caliber. COPLAC's membership currently consists of twenty-five public liberal arts colleges and universities who are committed to providing and advocating for the superlative, life-enhancing undergraduate education normally associated with small independent colleges. COPLAC also provides leadership in defining and modeling “best practice” in undergraduate education and promoting the qualities cultivated by outstanding student-centered liberal arts colleges.

The State University of New York at Geneseo has evolved dramatically over its 135-year history into a highly selective public liberal arts college, which is nationally recognized for the quality of education it offers.

MISSION, VALUES AND GOALS

Geneseo's Mission

The State University of New York at Geneseo, nationally recognized as a center of excellence in undergraduate education, is a public liberal arts college with selected professional and master's level programs. It combines a rigorous curriculum and a rich co-curricular life to create a learning-centered environment. The entire college community works together to develop socially responsible citizens with skills and values important to the pursuit of an enriched life and success in the world.

Planning Goals and Values

Geneseo is distinguished by one overriding purpose: to achieve excellence in higher education. The College realizes this purpose through a spirit of cooperation and collaboration among all members of the community.

Geneseo Values:

Excellence, and upholds high standards for intellectual inquiry and scholarly achievement;
Innovation, and affirms a spirit of exploration that fosters continued excellence;
Community, and embraces the educational aspirations and interests that its members share;
Diversity, and respects the unique contributions of each individual to the campus community;
Integrity, and promotes the development of ethical citizens;
Service to society, and models the qualities it seeks to develop in its students;
Tradition, and celebrates its long history of collaborative, learning-centered education.

Planning Goals:

1. Provide every student the highest quality education through a rigorous, challenging, and active learning experience in close working relationships with faculty and staff that encourages intellectual engagement and personal growth.
2. Recruit, support, and foster the development of a diverse community of outstanding students, faculty, and staff.
3. Enrich the collegiate experience by strengthening the integration between curricular and co-curricular programs.

Statement on Diversity and Community

Geneseo holds among its core values the ideals of community and diversity. Our community is defined as a group of faculty, students, and staff who live and work together at Geneseo because they share common goals that are based on the ideals of higher education rooted in the liberal arts.

Although they share common goals, the members of the Geneseo community also differ in many ways. Diversity at Geneseo is defined in part as differences in individuals that are manifested in their race, ethnicity, national origin, language heritage, world-view, religion, gender, sexual orientation, class, physical ability, learning style, geographic background, mental health, age, and relationship status.

Geneseo recognizes that the individuals who make up our community bring to it unique perspectives and knowledge that contribute to its richness and vibrancy. Because Geneseo also holds educational excellence among its core values, it recognizes that its progress as a community toward such excellence is predicated on its ability to embrace both the diversity of its members and the vigorous exchange of their ideas.

Geneseo calls all members of our community to share responsibility for the ongoing work of continually recreate sense of inclusion, belonging, and empowerment, so that together we will achieve our individual and collective aims, and experience the intellectual liberation that is at the heart of the educational enterprise.

TECHNOLOGY

Computing & Information Technology (CIT) supports technology at Geneseo. Geneseo offers exceptional computing facilities in all academic buildings and residence halls. For complete details on the information provided below, please contact the CIT HelpDesk at 245-5588 or visit our website at <http://cit.geneseo.edu>. The HelpDesk is staffed by both professionals and students and offers computer assistance for students, faculty and staff.

SUNY Geneseo requires incoming freshmen or undergraduate students who expect to graduate with the class of 2011 or later to bring a notebook computer to Geneseo. This requirement has several benefits, including:

- enabling students, faculty, and staff to take advantage of learning opportunities that exist only when every student in a classroom has a laptop;
- establishing a campus culture in which faculty and staff are increasingly willing and able to explore innovative and effective classroom and co-curricular uses of information technology;
- encouraging students to develop essential computer skills.

The Notebook Purchase Program is a voluntary program that provides students with a high-performance wireless notebook at a discounted price. For the most up-to-date information, visit <http://notebook.geneseo.edu>.

Geneseo offers exceptional technology facilities. There are over 60 computing labs including a lab for each residence hall. All Geneseo classrooms have computer/notebook projection and Internet access. Many of the classrooms also have other technologies including VCRs, laserdisc players, and visualizers. The Innovation Center, located in the lower level of Newton Hall, offers specialized services including video editing, slide scanning, poster printing, and video/audio duplication. Wireless networking is also available in academic buildings, residence halls and surrounding outdoor areas on campus, allowing students with notebook computers the benefits of the campus network without plugging in.

myCourses is Geneseo's online learning management system that enables faculty to post documents, administer assessments (surveys, quizzes and tests), create discussion forums, wikis and blogs, receive and grade assignments, post grades and more. myCourses provides students with anytime, anywhere, access to their course materials.

my.Geneseo.edu is a personal, customizable, web-based information portal to SUNY Geneseo that provides students with access to academic calendars, course offerings, academic department information, campus news and activities.

KnightWeb is the secure, self-service web interface to college administrative data. Students can register for courses, make payments, review/accept financial aid, view grades, transcripts, and campus mailbox assignments and take surveys.

Telephones are furnished in each residence hall room and provide free local calling, voice mail, and call waiting.

Geneseo offers cable TV to the residence halls. Presented on over 80 channels are instructional offerings, weather forecasts, ESPN, TNT, CNN, MTV, SciFi, HGTV, History and more. First-run feature films appear on two different channels 7 days a week/24 hours a day. Pay-per-view subscription service is also available.
