Center for LGBTQ+ Student Life (Sturges 210)

Sturges 210 has been designated as a safe space for LGBTQ+ students and allies. The space is equipped with lounge furniture, desks, a TV, literature, movies, games, and additional resources. Students and staff are welcome to utilize the center for studying, events, workshops, meetings, and relaxing.

Coordinator of LGBTQ Programs and Services

Dillon Federici has joined the Center for Community and he's happy to field questions from students, staff, and faculty about any LGBTQ-related issue. Email federici@geneseo.edu, call 585-245-6237, or visit CU 348 (10am-3pm on Mondays, Wednesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays).

Pathways Peer Advocacy

Confidential peer-to-peer based program that offers culturally competent support and referral information to students managing various challenges. Available by phone (585-237-8860) from 8pm-8am when classes are in session; available for chat or email (geneseopeeradvocacy@gmail.com) from 8pm-midnight when classes are in session. More information can be found at <http://www.geneseo.edu/pathways>.

Geneseo Counseling Services

Located on the second floor of Lauderdale; open Monday and Thursday 8am-6pm, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday 8am-5pm. Call 585-245-5716 to schedule an appointment.

All-Gender Bathroom Locations

As of Fall 2017, there are all-gender restrooms in almost every building on campus. Each is equipped with a lock for single-person use. An interactive map is available at

<http://www.geneseo.edu/lgbtq/restrooms>

Name Change on School Records

Students can complete a Preferred Name Request form (https://www.geneseo.edu/community/student_forms) to begin the process. Contact Dean of Students Leonard Sancio (585-245-5706 or sancio@geneseo.edu) or Dean of the College Savi Iyer (585-245-5541 or iyer@geneseo.edu) with questions.

Gender-Inclusive Housing

Students of all gender identities are free to live with whomever they choose. This housing option is available in both suite (Genesee) and corridor-style (Putnam) residence halls. Contact Assistant Director of Student Life for Housing Operations Elliot Zenilman (585-245-6365 or zenilman@geneseo.edu) with questions.

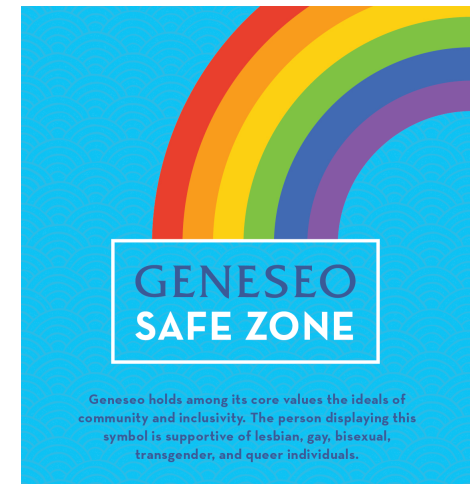

Academic Courses

The Women's and Gender Studies Program has the most regular offerings: <http://www.geneseo.edu/wsminor>.

Contact Program Coordinator Professor Melanie Blood (blood@geneseo.edu) or the chair of your home department to inquire about courses.

Safe Zone Trainings

Students, staff, and faculty displaying Safe Zone stickers have participated in cultural competency training related to LGBTQ issues and best practices for supporting and affirming LGBTQ students. For information on how to get your department, organization, or group Safe Zone trained, visit <https://www.geneseo.edu/lgbtq/safe-zone-network> or contact Alice Rutkowski (rutkowsk@geneseo.edu).

Geneseo Pride Alliance

The Pride Alliance is an SA-funded organization at SUNY Geneseo with the purpose of promoting education and community for gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender, and queer students as well as straight allies. The group holds weekly meetings as well as various other events on campus. Meetings are Thursdays at 8pm in the Union's Hunt Room. Contact pride@geneseo for more information.

Women's Action Coalition

WAC is an SA-funded group that works towards equality for all genders. Contact wacsg@geneseo.edu or visit www.geneseo.edu/wac for more information.

LGBTQ Issues Working Group

A committee charged with understanding the ways SUNY Geneseo currently supports LGBTQ students and identifying new ways that we can better support this ever-growing population of students. The Working Group is co-chaired by Alice Rutkowski (Associate Professor of English, rutkowski@geneseo.edu) and Dillon Federici (Coordinator, LGBTQ Programs and Services, federici@geneseo.edu).
