Spring Virtual International Internships

Gain international work experience, build a global network, refine your remote work skills and make cultural connections this Spring on a Remote Internship with Kaya Responsible Travel.

HIGHLIGHTS OF A VIRTUAL INTERNSHIP

- Individual internship placement matched based on interests and career goals (5-12 hours/week)
- Orientation to the country and your host organization
- 8 Cultural Workshops fun, interactive cultural sessions
- 8 Local Buddy Chat discussions with students from the host country
- Weekly check-ins and feedback sessions with Project Supervisors and Country Directors
- Discussion forums for connecting with other interns
- Support pursuing credit at SUNY Geneseo
- Workstyle and Reentry Toolkits to guide future career steps
- Future program discount of $200 to visit the host country

ACADEMIC AREAS

Internships are available across a wide range of academic areas including:

- NGO Management
- Business Development
- Entrepreneurship
- Social Enterprise
- International Development
- Law
- Immigration
- Human Rights
- Anthropology
- Environmental Science
- Sustainability
- Public Health
- Education
- Research
- Women's Empowerment
- Marketing
- Communications
- Media
- Journalism
- Videography
- Film Production
- IT
- Website Development
- Graphic Design
- LGBTQ+ Rights
- and many other academic areas.

DETAILS & FEES

- Start date: Feb. 4, 2021
- End date: May 6, 2021
- Application deadline: Dec. 1, 2020
- Program Fees: US $1285
- Optional Add-On (not included)
  - Language classes: French or Arabic in Morocco; Spanish in Ecuador

APPLICATION PROCESS

Contact studyabroad@geneseo.edu for more information about SUNY Geneseo credit & financial aid.

Visit www.kayavolunteer.com to apply or contact info@kayavolunteer.com to learn about internships in your field!