Foundations in Social Identities Class Collaborates with CAS to Bring More Cultural Foods to Campus!

Last week, the students of the Foundation in Social Identities class began working with CAS to bring some cultural foods to campus. This week, you may have tried our Chicken Makhani. This full-flavored, curry dish originated in Northern India.

Next week you can try Yaki Udon Noodles served with pork and vegetables at both MJ (lunch/dinner) and RJ (dinner). This dish is composed of thick noodles made from wheat flour, and used in Japanese culture. It can be prepared in a variety of ways.

If you have suggestions for cultural foods you would like to see on campus, we encourage you to reach out to CAS.

Mary Jemison (MJ)

This week, we featured our Chicken Bacon Ranch Sub prepared on our ciabatta sub roll with chicken tenders, bacon, American cheese and ranch dressing at the deli. We also added Buffalo chicken salad made with Franks hot sauce, Sriracha, mayo, and celery served any way you like it!

Red Jacket (RJ)

This past Tuesday we hosted our final Chef Lottery dinner at Twisted Fork. It was our third and final dinner for the semester. The four course meal consisted of a freshly baked tomato and olive focaccia with garlic and herb dipping oil, a burrata and griddled fig bread, braised lamb chop over celery root puree, and limoncello gelato flutes. The menu was created by Chef Marissa DioGuardi and prepared by Chef Matt Kershner.

Tuesday night at Twisted Fork, come celebrate the end of the semester with a variety of fun, non-alcoholic drinks, including the RJ Margarita, South Side Sunrise, and Piñita Colada

Plans to Reopen Letchworth Dining Complex Evolve

Last week, we mentioned how excited we are to share our news about reopening Letchworth. As we mentioned, changes will occur in phases. We will start by reopening upstairs for dinner service, which will include Chef's Table, Roma, Nabali, Clean Eats, Arugula, and Streusel. In order to reopen Letchworth we will need to adjust the operating hours for MJ. We will be closing MJ at 4:00 PM (M-F) and opening Letchworth at 4:00 PM daily. Letchworth will also be open for breakfast, lunch, and dinner service on weekends. Retail and retail grab & go will be offered downstairs. We will continue to share more details as they become available.

As concerns about COVID continue, here is what we are doing. Along with the hand sanitizing stations located at each entrance and throughout the buildings, we are adding counter pump bottles at each station and at the registers. Individuals can sanitize prior to entering food service lines. In addition to sanitation, there are hand washing stations at MJ and RJ. Gloves will be available by request. We have timers set for continual replacement of serving utensils, and we will also be placing napkin dispensers nearby serving areas to reduce direct contact.

Local RTS bus routes are available for a direct route between north campus (cross walk at Genesee) and south campus (Red Jacket Dining), with a stop each way at MacVittie College Union. View Bus Schedules.

We are still missing hundreds of utensils, cups, and other service items. Please help us in our efforts to be sustainable by returning these items on your next visit.

Unfortunately there will still be times where we are required to make substitutions to menus due to regional and national shortages, or delays in shipment. Please check our online menus for current offerings.
