Foundations in Social Identities Class Collaborates with CAS to Bring More Cultural Foods to Campus!

For the next few weeks, the students of the Foundations in Social Identities class are partnering with CAS to bring some cultural foods to campus. We believe that it is important to students and staff of all cultural backgrounds to feel welcome and appreciated here at Geneseo.

This week, we served Jerk Chicken. This spicy dish originated with the Taino, an indigenous group from the Caribbean, and is commonly associated with Jamaican and Caribbean cultures. Next week you can try Chicken Makhani at both MJ (lunch/dinner) and RJ (dinner). These dishes will be located at the grills. If you have suggestions for cultural foods you would like to see on campus, we encourage you to reach out to CAS.

Mary Jemison (MJ)

The flavor of the month at Mary's is our special Coco Nog smoothie. It's made with hot cocoa mix, coconut milk, banana, vanilla yogurt, nutmeg, cinnamon and pancake syrup with whipped topping. Next week you can try our Chicken Bacon Ranch Sub prepared on our ciabatta sub roll with crispy chicken tenders, bacon, American cheese, and ranch dressing at the deli.

Red Jacket (RJ)

For those who crave a delicious fresh seafood meal, this week we featured a maple-glazed, seared Atlantic salmon dish with butternut squash and brown butter purée, alongside crispy roasted brussels sprouts.

Next Tuesday's lunch at American Grill will include pastrami and roast beef sliders with hot pastrami, Swiss cheese, mustard and onion or roast beef and provolone cheese on a dinner roll.

Also on Tuesday at Twisted Fork we host our third and final Chef Lottery dinner for the semester. Winners will be emailed directly with the menu and need to RSVP.

Barnes & Noble and Campus Auxiliary Services is awarding several textbook grants for students at SUNY Geneseo to use at the Barnes & Noble operated SUNY Geneseo Bookstore. Textbook grants will vary and be awarded each semester with the hopes that they can be used in conjunction with Barnes & Noble's used books, digital books, and textbook rental options.

We Understand the Concerns with COVID Headlining the News and Here is What We are Doing...

Along with the hand sanitizing stations located at each entrance and throughout the buildings, we will add counter pump bottles at each station and at the registers. Individuals can sanitize prior to entering food service lines. In addition to sanitation, there are hand washing stations within each dining unit. Gloves will be available by request. We have timers set for continual replacement of serving utensils, and we will also be placing napkin dispensers nearby serving areas to reduce direct contact.
