NEW YORK'S PUBLIC HONORS COLLEGE

THE STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK

Ira S. Wilson Arena
Merritt Athletic Center
Geneseo, New York

A Message from the President

Dear Members of the SUNY Geneseo Class of 2026,

Congratulations on reaching this extraordinary milestone. Today, we celebrate not only your academic accomplishments, but the determination, curiosity, and character that have brought you to this moment. Each of you has contributed to the vibrancy and excellence of SUNY Geneseo, and it is with immense pride that we recognize your achievements today.

During your time here, you demonstrated initiative, creativity, and a profound commitment to learning and to personal growth. You embraced the challenges before you and shaped them into opportunities for growth. Whether through scholarship, research, the arts, service, leadership, or athletic achievement, you have enriched our community and strengthened the traditions that define this institution.

As you prepare to embark on new paths, you carry with you the gifts of a liberal arts honors education: the ability to think critically, communicate effectively, solve complex problems, and approach the world with empathy and purpose. These qualities will serve you well, no matter where your journey leads. You join a distinguished network of Geneseo alumni—leaders, innovators, educators, creators, and public servants—whose impact spans generations and communities across the globe.

Remember that Geneseo will always be part of your story. The friendships you have built, the mentors who have guided you, and the experiences that have shaped you will remain long after today's celebration. I hope you stay connected to this remarkable community, return often, and carry forward the values that have grounded your time here. Geneseo will always be your home.

It has been an honor to serve as your president during your final year here in Geneseo. It has been my privilege to witness the talent, heart, and promise you bring to our world. As you step into the future, know that you do so with the confidence and support of the entire Geneseo family.

Congratulations once again on your graduation. We will miss you and watch your successful journey with pride.

Sincerely,

Melinda Treadwell
President, SUNY Geneseo

Rebecca Wilson Bresee '93 has had a 30-year career as an animator with the Walt Disney Animation Studios, helping to create everything from puppies to princesses and working on several of the highest grossing films of all time.

Earning her first credit on the movie Dinosaur, Bresee has since worked on a host of feature films, including Treasure Planet, Chicken Little, Meet the Robinsons, Bolt, Tangled, Wreck-It Ralph, Big Hero 6, Zootopia, Moana, Raya and the Last Dragon, Encanto, Moana 2, and Zootopia 2. She served as the animation supervisor of Anna on the film Frozen. Bresee then went on to work as one of the heads of animation on Frozen Fever, Frozen 2, the Disney+ original short film Once Upon a Snowman, and Disney Animation's 100 year film Wish. She's currently working as animation supervisor for Anna on Frozen 3.

Bresee received a Bachelor of Arts degree in studio art from SUNY Geneseo in 1993 and attended Sheridan College to specialize in animation. She'll receive an honorary Doctor of Fine Arts degree for her professional and artistic achievements.

Afternoon Ceremony

Jeff Clarke '83, MBA has a 40+-year career as a business executive, serving leading technology companies such as Eastman Kodak, Digital Equipment Corporation, Compaq Computer, Hewlett-Packard, CA Software, Travelport, FTD, and Insurity. He led the IPO of Orbitz Worldwide in 2007 and has served on the boards of directors for technology companies such as Autodesk, Compuware, Doxim, Generate Life Sciences, Red Hat, and UTStarcom.

Appointed as CEO of Kodak in 2015, Clarke led its emergence from bankruptcy, rebuilding the company by expanding its printing, chemicals, and licensing business. His decision to continue to invest in the manufacture and production of celluloid film for photography and movies led to partnerships with key Hollywood studios and film directors, such as Christopher Nolan and Quentin Tarantino. That decision process was featured in the Harvard Business School case study The Reinvention of Kodak, published in 2018.

Clarke holds a BA in economics from SUNY Geneseo and an MBA from Northeastern University. He has supported his alma maters by serving on the Geneseo Foundation Board and as a Northeastern University trustee. Clarke will receive an honorary Doctor of Humane Letters degree for his significant contributions to business leadership.

Senior Orators

The Senior Oration is an important opportunity for seniors to share reflections on the Geneseo experience with the graduating class. Members of the Class of 2026 were invited to compete for the honor of Senior Orator in a multi-stage process.

Special Awards

The Richard Roark Award was first presented in May 1970, less than two months after Roark, a professor of anthropology at Geneseo, was presumed drowned off the Island of Guadeloupe in the French West Indies. The endowed award is given to a graduating senior whose excellence in scholarship and community service emulates Roark's. The recipient will receive a stipend to purchase books and will have their name inscribed on a plaque in the Robert MacVittie College Union.

Academic Attire

Academic attire generally consists of cap, gown, and hood worn on formal occasions at institutions of higher learning. This attire reflects the ecclesiastical garb of the medieval period when scholars were nearly all members of the clergy.

The bachelor's gown is worn closed, distinguished by its long, pointed sleeves; the master's gown is designed to be worn open and has long sleeves with an arc cut in front and square base in the back. The doctoral gown is worn open or closed and has velvet panels down the front and three velvet bars on the round, full sleeve.

A distinguishing feature of academic attire is the hood. Its size, shape, and color designate the degree earned and

The Mace

The faculty and staff procession is led by the Grand Marshal, who carries the Geneseo mace. The mace dates to medieval times and is a symbol of authority. Geneseo's mace is carried only at the New Student Convocation and Commencement.

The mace and a companion medallion were designed and created by Professor Willard Peterson in 1971 in response to a commission by a committee of students and alumni chaired by Robert Redden. Peterson's design for the Geneseo mace fashions New York State cherry wood into the handle and the traditional spikes. The ornamentation features a blue lapis lazuli gemstone (found in the US only

From this year's excellent entries, Corrina Filek '26 will speak at the morning ceremony. She is graduating with a double major in sociomedical sciences and anthropology. Giulyana Gamero '26 will speak at the afternoon ceremony. She is graduating with a major in communication.

The President's Cup is given annually to a graduating senior who exemplifies superior service and dedication to the Student Association through involvement in and leadership of the association and its funded organizations. Students receiving this award must have at least a 2.7 grade point average. Recipients are selected by the newly elected executive committee, and the award is presented by the incoming Student Association president at the Commencement Rehearsal.

the college or university. Bachelor's hoods are rarely used, but they are similar in design to master's hoods and are three feet long. The master's hood measures three and a half feet. The doctoral hood is rounder and four feet long. Hoods are lined with the official colors of the institution conferring the degree, such as blue and gold for the State University of New York. The binding around the hood is velvet and the color indicates the major field of study.

Caps are normally black and the most common is the four-pointed mortarboard, but tams are also worn. Tassels are worn over the left front quarter after the degree has been conferred. Tassels were historically black although doctoral degree holders may wear a shorter gold tassel.

in New York State) and honors the Geneseo blue. The sunburst surrounding the stone alternates twelve gold and silver shafts, reflecting the light of learning.

The mace was a gift to the College by the Alpha Clonian Corporation. The medallion, worn by the president as a seal of office, was given by the Class of 1969.

A new lanyard for the medallion was designed and created by Professor Patrice Case in 2016. A cabinet to house both was designed and constructed by Professor Paul Hepler and presented to the College by the Alumni Association. It stands in the Tower Room of Doty Hall, where the mace and medallion are permanently displayed.

- Ushers (in STAFF apparel) and University Police are available at all times for assistance and information.

- Family picture-taking is welcome from your individual seat. As a courtesy to all spectators, please do not approach the stage area. A professional photographer will take a photo of each graduate as they shake hands with the president and then one after they leave the stage. Proofs will be sent to your home with the option of purchase.

- Following the ceremony, please move to a location away from the arena. Please do not wait outside the arena. This will help alleviate congestion and long waits.

Restrooms

Restrooms are available in the lower level of Merritt. There are two sets, one on the south facing wall as you enter the arena from the floor and the other on the opposite side on the north facing wall overlooking the back of Merritt Athletic Center.

Restrooms on the lower level can be accessed by exiting the main upper doors and using stairs or elevator to the lower level or by exiting the hallway to the northeast on the jogging track (follow restroom sign). Please note that access is restricted from 8:45 to 9 a.m. and 12:45 to 1 p.m. due to the procession of graduates using the hallway.

Portable restrooms are available in two locations and both are accessible by wheelchair. One unit is located on the south side of Merritt by the overhead door that is used for mobility impaired entrance and exit to the arena. The other is out the northwest exit area, floor level.

First Aid

First aid is provided by the Geneseo First Responders (GFR) and is available from 7 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Commencement Day. Uniformed members are in the Workout Room on the lower level of the arena. Ask an usher to direct you if you need assistance.

Ambulance

In the event that an individual requires a transport for medical services, an ambulance and local medical professionals are on duty to assist.

Shuttle Service

A shuttle will run to and from the Merritt Athletic Center to the outlying parking areas before and after each ceremony. After each ceremony, shuttles will make stops near the Visitors Loop in addition to the parking areas.

Barnes and Noble Bookstore

Looking to grab some last-minute Geneseo swag? The bookstore, located in the MacVittie College Union, will be open 8 a.m.-4 p.m. today.

Emergency Evacuation

In the unlikely event the arena needs to be evacuated, we ask each person to exit via the closest exit located in each corner of the arena.

Geneseo staff will then assist by directing you to the nearest point of shelter.
