

Many HW problems have had a special symmetry to them, simplifying the math. What if that is not available?

Find the E-field at point P.

Find the E-field at point P:

- Find each magnitude from point charge formula
- Get components from similar triangles

