An object moves horizontally across the top of a cliff of height 100 m, with a speed of 50 m/s. How far from the cliff is the object when it hits the ground, and how fast is it moving when it just hits the ground?